Rationale for the PdO TMDL Methodogy.docx

All –

This is not about the agenda, but rather a last minute scramble to share info (I'm out Friday, and this meeting is bright and early Monday). Please see attached for an improved description of the rationale for CFA62. I started writing this after our last call with HQ, when Jim Curtain gave a verbal summary of the CFA62 issue that didn't explain the whole picture. There are also a few gaps in the common understanding of the border issue.

This 3 pager has been through a review loop between Helen, Kim, and myself. Question: Do we want it in HQ's hands as well, particularly Jim Curtain? If so, maybe Dave could send?

Thanks. -BC

Sarah is looking for comments on the Agenda for HQ briefing with Denise Keehner next Monday. I am off on Friday, so please provide any comments to me today by 3, or directly to Sarah. I am planning to tell her that we do not need a specific space on the agenda.

Here is the Agenda:

Introductions – All, ~5 min.

Issue, Background Overview [“Washington State’s Submitted PdO TMDL for Temperature” paper] – Sarah, ~15 min. [Helen—I’ll plan to lead the briefing. I may turn to folks – including Region 10 -- to help answer questions. Let me know – based on your input and your counterparts’ input – if R10 would like a specific place on the agenda]

Questions & Answers, Discussion – All, ~25 min.

DRAFT-DELIBERATIVE* ATTORNEY-CLIENT PRIVILEGE

Helen,

Following up on our chat today on the PdO briefing for Denise Keehner on Aug. 12 (and the Aug. 28 face-to-face),

Below please find a draft agenda for the Monday, Aug. 12 briefing (11-11:45 am Eastern) with Denise.

Can you help me with choreography?

Please check in with counterparts in the Region that plan to participate, and give me a call with any edits you'd like to see, or shoot me an email. Please provide edits by noon Eastern on Friday.

Thanks!
